Hi Camila,

Apologies for the delay in my response. I was this week putting all my energy in the ONE LAM workshop and decided not to focus on mails.

Many thanks for your reaching out to me. It energizes me to read the passion, drive and eagerness with which you are working on your development. I would happily help you on your journey.

What about lunch when we both are back in Panama? I will schedule you in outlook. Have a great Christmas break and re-energize for the next year!

Warm regards,
Bas
